

Git Notes

---

1. `git init`
  - Create a new git repository in a folder
2. `git config --global user.email`
  - Add a user's email address in the settings of git
3. `git config --global user.name`
  - Added a user's name in the settings of git
4. `git config --global core.editor`
  - Set the text editor to edit commit messages
5. `git add`
  - Stage a file or add it to different place where it will committed
  - Use `.` (dot) to add all the files in the current folder
6. `git commit`
  - Record the made changes
  - Use the `-m` option to add the commit message when running the command
7. `git status`
  - View the status of your files in a git repo
8. `git log`
  - View the history of your commits